WE HAVE SEEN HIS GLORY The Glory of Christ's Omniscience

TEXT: John 4:16-30 \(ESV\)

He knows my sin.

We are masters at deception. We always present ourselves in the best light. But it is so important to stop and realize, from time to time, that Jesus knows our sin – He knows our sin better than we do. "You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your presence." (Psalm 90:8, ESV)

He knows my arguments.

Jesus is going to dismiss this argument as being irrelevant. The future of God's timetable will in fact make both places of worship irrelevant.

Jesus knows what we really need to know

"Jesus said to her, "I who speak to you am he."" (John 4:26, ESV).

Summary

- She abandoned her concern about water;
- Secondly, we note that she rushed back into town and boldly exclaimed to the town that this man was totally aware of her life; and
- The Jesus was being transformed before her eyes.

APPLICATION

The point that John presses in this story is the reality that Jesus knows – He knows everything.
